

I appreciate the no-call list that Wisconsin has. I will not respond positively to telemarketers interrupting family time, therefore I don't see the reasoning in allowing them to call.